NOTICE OF VACANCY

Temporary Full-Time Social Studies Teacher (Grades 6-12)

Hancock Central High & Middle School is seeking a temporary full-time Secondary Social Studies teacher to instruct students in grades 6-12. This position offers the opportunity to engage students in meaningful learning experiences that build critical thinking, civic responsibility, and historical understanding.

Desired Qualifications:

- Michigan teaching certification in Social Studies (RX) for grades 6–12
- Strong content knowledge in history, civics, geography, and related social science disciplines
- Commitment to student engagement, inquiry-based learning, and academic growth
- Special consideration will be given to applicants with multiple certifications, including English, mathematics, science, physical education, building trades, and/or technology

Position Details:

- This is a temporary full-time position for the remainder of the 2025–2026 school year, with potential for extension or conversion to a permanent position.
- Competitive wages based on experience, in accordance with the HEA Master Agreement
- Strong community of support, including a healthy Hancock Public Schools Foundation that grants generous funding for resources that enhance the educational experience for students and teachers

We are excited to welcome a motivated educator who is passionate about engaging students through practical, real-world learning opportunities!
